Refer to the Fund's Prospectus and disclosure documents available on sedar.com or Lysander's website below for more details on the Canso Select Opportunities Fund ("Fund") before making an investment decision. This document is not an invitation to invest in the Fund nor does it constitute a public offering of sale. Applications for purchases in the Fund will only be considered on the terms of the Prospectus and public disclosure documents which may also be obtained from your Investment Professional. Each purchaser of units in the Fund may have statutory or contractual rights of action. The information in this document is subject to change without notice. You will usually pay brokerage fees to your dealer if you purchase or sell units of the Fund on the Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX). Only Class A units of the Fund are listed on the TSX. If the units are purchased or sold on the TSX, investors may pay more than the current net asset value when buying units of the Fund and may receive less than the current net asset value when selling them. There are ongoing fees and expenses associated with owning units of the Fund, including a performance fee if applicable. Details of the performance fee are contained in the Fund's prospectus or offering documents. The Fund must prepare disclosure documents that contain key information about the Fund. You can find more detailed information about the Fund in these documents. Commissions, trailing commissions, management fees and expenses all may be associated with mutual fund investments. Please read the prospectus before investing. Mutual funds are not guaranteed, their values change frequently and past performance may not be repeated.
