Investment objective

The Fund’s objective is to provide long-term capital growth by investing primarily in equity securities of companies anywhere in the world.

Investment Strategies

The Fund’s portfolio manager, is Canso Investment Counsel (“Portfolio Manager” or “Canso”). The Fund invests primarily in equity securities of small, medium and large companies. The Fund may also hold cash and fixed income securities. The Fund will not be constrained by geographic or sector considerations and could be substantially exposed to equity securities of issuers not in developed markets.

Canso tends to take a “bottom up” approach to portfolio construction, focusing on security selection. The Portfolio Manager selects securities based on its independent, proprietary research and valuation of individual companies.

The Fund may invest in debt securities convertible into common stock, fixed income securities of governments, government agencies, supranational agencies, companies, trusts, limited partnerships and other funds including ETFs. The Fund will not be leveraged. The Fund may invest up to 100% of its net assets in foreign securities.

The Fund may hold all or a portion of its assets in cash or cash equivalents or invest in short term bonds or money market instruments in response to adverse market, economic and/or political conditions or for liquidity, defensive or other purposes. As a result, the Fund may not always be fully invested in accordance with its investment objectives. More details are contained in the Fund’s simplified prospectus.

Risks

On December 21, 2017, the Manager decreased the risk rating of the Fund from “medium-to-high” to “medium” in accordance with the new standardized methodology for classifying fund volatility mandated by the Canadian Securities Administrators. Please refer to the Fund’s most recent simplified prospectus or its amendments.

Results of Operations

During the year Canso employed its bottom-up process to buy and sell securities for the Fund. The positioning and performance is consistent with the Fund’s fundamental investment objective and strategies. There were no unusual changes to the components of revenue and expenses of the Fund and there were no unusual or infrequent events or transactions, economic changes or market conditions that affected performance beyond what would be reasonably expected.

The Fund had positive returns in the year of 12.7% for Series A and 14.0% for Series F.

The net assets of the Fund increased to approximately $3.5million at December 31, 2017 from approximately $2.8 million at the beginning of the year. This was due to subscriptions of approximately $324 thousand less redemptions of approximately $51 thousand along with the positive fund performance.

There were no unusual changes to the components of revenue and expenses of the Fund and there were no unusual events or transactions, economic changes or market conditions that affected performance beyond what would be reasonably expected.

The Fund did not borrow money during the year except for immaterial short-term cash overdrafts.

Recent Developments

The Federal Reserve raised interest rates three times in the year and signaled that further tightening is expected in 2018. The Fed believes that the labour market has strengthened and economic activity has been rising at a strong pace. They expect inflation to stabilize around its 2% objective over the medium term. Despite the increase in interest rates in both the U.S. and Canada, equity markets remained strong for the year

Canso believes the U.S. economy is demonstrating strong job gains and improving household spending. The weakness in the U.S. dollar and tax cuts should benefit corporations. Protectionist policies proposed by the new U.S. government may lead to weakness in emerging markets. The economic outlook in Europe is also showing optimism. Canso remains concerned about consumer debt levels and stretched house prices in Canada. The recent measures introduced by the government to control the 'frothy' housing market are timely but may erode the valuation of the single largest asset in Canadian households. Canadian households are vulnerable to a sharp rise in interest rates and an increase in unemployment. Additional uncertainties to the economy arise from Ontario's minimum wage hike and the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) negotiations. However, the Canadian dollar has responded positively to the strength in oil prices and to a declining spread between Canadian and U.S. interest rates.

Several of the Fund's holdings were very strong performers in the year. These included Bombardier, Empire Co., Apple, Wal-Mart, Nintendo, and Commerzbank. Equity markets have performed very well, to the point where many valuations are at high levels. As a result, Canso has been selling shares in the names they believe to be the most overvalued. The largest equity sales have been in Blackberry, Imvescor Restaurant Group, and Bombardier. Larger purchases were of shares in Enbridge, Yellow Pages, and Sun Life.

The Fund's future performance will be affected by the future direction of equity markets and the performance of the underlying holdings. Canso evaluates and holds equities on a case-by-case basis based on its research, without regard for the Fund's positioning versus broad market indexes. The objective is always to hold equities that are attractively priced in the market relative to Canso's view of their long-term intrinsic value.

There have been no changes to the Manager or Portfolio Manager, or change of control of the Manager, or of the Fund. There have been no actual or planned reorganizations, mergers or similar transactions.

There were changes to the membership of the Fund's Independent Review Committee ("IRC"). On January 31, 2017, Ruth Gould was appointed as an IRC member.

Notes

* The Fund commenced operations on September 18, 2013

1 The information is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements. All per unit figures presented are referenced to net assets determined in accordance to IFRS.

2 Net assets and distributions are based on the actual numbers of units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase (decrease) in operations is based on the weighted average number of units outstanding over the financial period. This table is not intended to be a reconciliation of beginning to ending net assets per unit.

3 Distributions were paid in cash or reinvested in additional units, or both.

4 This information is provided at the end of the period shown.

5 The management expense ratio is based on the total expenses of the period ended and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset values during the period.

6 The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio manager manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund. The portfolio turnover rate is calculated based on the lesser of purchases or sales of securities divided by the weighted average market value of portfolio securities, excluding short term securities.

7 The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.
