lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

Lysander Funds Limited has rated the volatility of this Fund as medium.

This rating is based on how much the Fund's returns have changed from year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the Fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

No guarantees

Like most mutual funds, this Fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

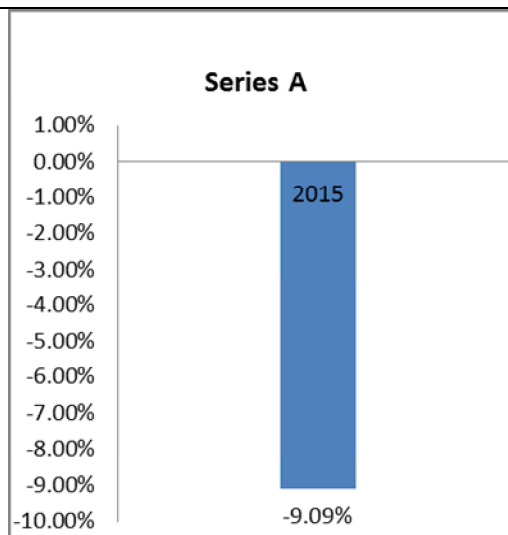

How has the fund performed?

This section tells you how the Series A Units of the Fund have performed over one year. Returns are after Fund expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the Series' returns.

Year-by-year returns

This chart shows how the Series A Units of the Fund have performed in the last year. The Fund dropped in value in the last year. The range of returns and change from year to year can help you assess how risky the Fund has been in the past. It does not tell you how the Fund will perform in the future.

Who is the fund for?Investors who:

- plan to hold this investment for the medium-to-long term; and
- primarily want to receive dividend income.

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on your share of the Fund's earnings and on taxable capital gains you realize from redeeming your investment. How much you pay depends on the tax rates that apply to you, and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions of income and taxable capital gains are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Series A Units of the Fund. The fees and expenses – including any commissions – can vary among series of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

Sales charges

There is only one sales charge option when you buy Series A Units.

Sales charge option	What you pay		How it works
	in per cent (%)	in dollars ($)
Initial Sales Charge Option	0% to 5% of the amount you buy	$0 to $50 on every $1,000 you buy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You and your representative decide on the rate of commission that you pay when you buy Units. The initial sales charge is deducted from the amount paid at the time of purchase. It goes to your representative's firm as a commission.

Fund expenses

You do not pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the Fund's returns.

As at June 30, 2016, the expenses of the Series were 1.78% of its average value. This equates to $17.80 for every $1,000 invested.

	Annual rate (as a % of the Fund's value)
Management expense ratio (MER) – This is the total of the Series' management fee (including the trailing commission) and operating expenses.	1.56%

More about the trailing commission

The trailing commission is an ongoing commission. Lysander Funds Limited pays your representative a trailing commission for as long as you own Units of this Series of the Fund. It is for the services and advice your representative and their firm provide to you. Lysander Funds Limited pays the trailing commission to your representative's firm. It is paid by Lysander Funds Limited out of the management fee and is based on the value of your investment. The maximum annual trailing commission rate for Series A Units of the Fund is 0.50%, which equals $5.00 for every $1,000 invested.

Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you buy, hold, sell or switch Units of this Series of the Fund.

Fee	What you pay
Short-term trading fees	Up to 2% of the amount redeemed or switched if you redeem or switch within 30 days of purchase. This fee goes to the Fund.
Switch fees	Your representative's firm may charge you up to 2% of the net asset value of the switched Units, as negotiated between you and your representative's firm.
